

HELLIER NEWS

(By HARRY COHEN)

Life Time Savings Lost.

Dave Courtney, a man in his advanced years, lost $100 in gold, his life time savings, as a result of carrying his money in his pockets. On account of his old age, Courtney is scarcely able to work, and this is a heavy blow to him.

News-England.

Thos. E. Newson, Jr., age 24, the son of Thos. Newson, Cornetville, Pa., and Miss Lenna England, the charming daughter of Mrs. R. B. England, Pikeville, were married by the Rev. C. E. Otey at Pikeville at his residence on Saturday, June 2nd. Mr. Newson is an electrician for the Allegheny Coke company at this place. Miss England has been teaching school here. They will reside here. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

Fund For Fourth of July Celebration Started.

While a great number of our citizens already have their homes decorated and their patriotic enthusiasm aroused, it is now time for the Hellier merchants and business men generally to get together and prepare for a 4th of July celebration, the greatest that Hellier has ever had. A fund has been started by the NEWS reporter, he contributing $5. John Anderson subscribed $5, and the following $2 each: Joel Ratliff, Tom Fife and J. C. Ratliff. Now who will subscribe next? Let's keep the ball rolling until we have sufficient funds to carry it out properly. A picnic, games, fire works, and various prizes to be given are the proposed program on schedule for the celebration. Funds are now being received at the Anderson news stand. Every cent is accounted for.

Helen Holmes Attracts Hundreds.

Helen Holmes, who plays in the "Railroad Raiders" made her appearance before a house packed to its capacity, last Wednesday night at the Princess theater. Helen Holmes will continue to play each Wednesday night for fifteen weeks.

Bartley-Rowe.

Levi Bartley, age 34, a farmer of Lookout, and Callie Rowe, age 32, were united in matrimony at Lookout Thursday, May 31.

Lookout Woman Dead.

Mrs. Davis Ratliff, Lookout, died after an illness of only a few days of appendicitis. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ratliff. She left her husband, four children, several brothers and sisters and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Secured School At Lookout.

W. B. Childers and Miss Verna Childers will teach at the Lookout school this year.

Visiting In Pikeville.

A. P. Childers and J. H. Ratliff, Jr., Lookout, were business visitors in Pikeville last week.

Speaking Of Odd Things.

A sign in the business district reads thus: "In God we trust. In others we bust." Still another one reads as follows: "No credit, have some cents."

Charged With Selling Whisky.

John Anderson, colored, was taken into custody by the Hellier officers last Saturday and placed in jail on an alleged charge of whisky selling. He was taken to the Pikeville jail Saturday evening.

Edgewater Team Playing Remarkably.

The Edgewater team has won three times in succession, the scoring resulting two and three in favor of Edgewater. Geo. Watkins hit a home run in the eighth inning which won the game for Edgewater. Thos. Newton was the pitcher for Hellier, and Sue. Arcks was Edgewater's pitcher.

Mrs. Fife On Trip.

Mrs. Tom Fife, wife of local grocer, two daughters, and son are visiting in different points in West Virginia. Mrs. Fife owns considerable property in West Virginia and has oil holdings there.

Mrs. Warden Returns Home.

Mrs. C. A. Warden, Edgewater, has returned from an extended trip to New York City. Mrs. Warden had been visiting her sister.

Harry Cohen Says

Any kind of business is more respectable than that of a peddler. A young man had better sell chairs by the pail full, than hang around public resorts murdering his time and reputation.

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC OUTCRY.

One steamboat "MILDRED RUNYON" near the public landing in the city of Catlettsburg, Ky., on Monday, the 18th day of June, 1917, at 1 o'clock p. m. Said boat is 95 feet long, 16 feet on bottom, 20 feet over all, 36 inch depth, 2 slide valve engines, 8 inch diameter, 30 inch stroke, 1 locomotive type boiler, allowed 185 pounds K. C. easy steamer, light fuel, boiler 3 years old, inspected December 3, 1916. Single deck passenger and tow, equipped for 60 passengers. Just off the docks and all as good as new.

Terms:—One-third of purchase price in cash; one-third in 4 months; one-third in 6 months. Purchaser executing notes payable at the Kentucky National Bank, of Catlettsburg, Ky., with good security.

Reason for selling, retiring from steamboating, on Ohio river. 2t. CAPT. JAS. RUNYON.

British troops have captured another mile of German trenches Southeast of Messines, together with seven field guns and prisoners, according to the official report from British headquarters. The Italians have begun an offensive in the region Southwest of Trent and have captured two important points of vantage from the Austrians according to official communication issued to-day. Monte Ortigara, East of Cima Undice, and the Agnello pass both were taken, in addition to more than 500 prisoners.

PIKE COUNTY NEWS

MRS. KEYSER ENTERTAINS.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the meeting of the Archery Club with Mrs. Charles McConnell Keyser, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ed L. Burke on Front-st., on Friday afternoon. A number of guests were present besides the club members, including Miss Ferguson of Huntington, who is the guest of Miss Katharine Keel, Mesdames A. S. Reese, W. Dee Sutton, J. Linton Trivette, S. J. Amick, Evan Thomas of Ciderella, W. Va., J. D. Francis, W. H. Flannery of Catlettsburg, R. L. Miller and T. G. Burke.

One pleasant feature of the afternoon was the presenting to Mrs. Dave Williamson, the most recent bride of the club, a wedding present, a beautiful cut glass bowl. The bowl was presented by Mrs. Walter Hatcher, the first bride of the club with a few appropriate remarks.

The afternoon was delightfully spent with fancy work and at a late hour a delightful salad course was served. Mr. and Mrs. Keyser will soon leave for their farm near Charlottesville, Va., and they will be greatly missed by a host of friends.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Josephine Ratliff entertained a large number of her friends at her home on Huffman-st., in honor of her birthday on the evening of June 12. The evening was spent in music and games and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served.

REV. C. H. EVANS.

Rev. Chas. F. Evans, field worker of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, will be here next Sunday. He will preach at the Christian church in the morning and in the evening there will be a union service of the Presbyterian and Christian churches, in the interest of young people's work, these being the only churches in town that have Christian Endeavor Societies.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. Anthony Williams is becoming quite proficient in the driving of her new car.

Mrs. Edward Holley of Ashland is spending a few days here the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bales.

Miss Bess York left last week for Cincinnati where she will spend a few weeks as the guest of Mrs. W. E. Coleman.

Mr. Medley Crum of Williamson, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Willis Stanton.

Misses Ruth Greer and Sancy Fauley spent the week-end with Misses Florence and Josephine Herford in Prestonsburg.

Mrs. James McCoy is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Lark in Catlettsburg.

Misses Charlotte and Polley Crawford and Master Clem Crawford of Tennessee, are guests at the home of their uncle, the Rev. Mr. J. Russell Crawford.

Mr. Warden of Marrowbone, was here Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Flannery of Catlettsburg, returned home Tuesday morning after a very pleasant visit with friends here.

Mrs. Evan Thomas left Thursday for her home in Ciderella, W. Va., after spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Francis.

Miss Mary Bruce Redd of Millersburg is the guest of Miss Donyaus Price.

Mrs. Flannery of Catlettsburg was the guest of Mrs. Felix Compton at noon dinner Sunday, and of Mr. James Sowards for supper.

Paul Riddle and Jean Auxler spent Sunday at home.

Harrison Bowles left Monday morning to join an engineering party with which he will work during vacation.

Clarence Donaldson was taken to Tennessee last week, suffering from appendicitis. A telegram to his mother Saturday night said that he was operated on as soon as he reached the hospital and is now doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. James I. Francis are having a delightful visit in New York this week. They write that they have seen many interesting things, including the largest ocean liner, the Vate-land, which was recently confiscated by Uncle Sam from the Germans.

Mr. David L. Francis is spending this week in Mahan, West Va.

Miss Mary Auxler had as her overnight guest Saturday, Mrs. W. H. Flannery of Catlettsburg.

Miss Dammor of Yeager is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ruey Culbertson of Scotts-av.

Miss Chambers of Huntington has accepted a position with the Sowards Insurance Agency.

We're Shouting

about the excellent quality of our printing. We don't care what the job may be, we are equipped to turn it out to your satisfaction. If you can't tell us, we'll tell you so.

Let Us Convince You

FLOYD COUNTY'S RECORD FOR WEEK.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick Entertains.

On last Thursday at her home on Huffman-st., Mrs. J. C. Fitzpatrick entertained a number of guests. The evening was spent in music and games and at a late hour delicious refreshments were served.

Body Brought Home For Burial.

The remains of a young man, who was killed in a recent accident, were brought home for burial. The body was recovered from the river near Ashland, and was brought to Prestonsburg on last Friday evening. It is thought that the girl was unharmed, then died with her arms crossed in the Ohio. James Cohen, who enlisted in the national guards at Louisville, was arrested and brought to Catlettsburg and lodged in jail there. The funeral of the girl was held at the home of her uncle B. Hatcher, interment taking place in the Richmond cemetery.

Dinner.

Miss Josephine Harkins was hostess to dinner on Sunday at twelve o'clock. Covers were laid for Misses Ruth Davidson, Edith Fitzpatrick, Messrs. J. C. Urban, Mr. Tandy, P. D. Davis and A. L. Morrow.

Victrola Concert.

Edwin R. Burke entertained a number of his friends on Sunday afternoon with a victrola concert. Those present were Misses Ella Noel White, Tress May, Cora Stephens, Mary E. Powers, Josephine Harkins, Ruth Davidson, Edith Fitzpatrick, Messrs. James Davidson, J. C. Urban, A. L. Morrow, Mr. Wilkinson, Edgar and Oscar Stephens, P. D. Davis.

Home From Alabama.

Miss Mary E. Powers, who has been attending school in Birmingham for several months, returned last week.

Home From Colleges.

Leroy H. Powers has returned from Georgetown college where he has been for some time.

W. Scott Harkins is home from his school in Danville, Ky. Mr. Harkins is a student at Centre college.

Grady Sellards arrived last week from Richmond college in Richmond, Virginia.

Visitor From Honaker.

Mrs. Anne Powers Cox of Honaker, Va., is here visiting her brother, O. P. Powers at the Elizabeth hotel.

Woodall Stock Company.

The Woodall Stock Co. played at the Era theater on last Friday and Saturday evenings to full houses. This company was a very clean show, considerably the best ever shown here.

Recital.

Miss Edith Fitzpatrick and music clubs gave a grand recital at the Irene Cole Memorial church on Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The program consisted of the following numbers:

- PROGRAM
- Invocation.....Rev. J. T. Pope
 - Waltz of the Flower Fairies.....Crosby
 - Mildred Layne
 - Reading—Wakin' the Young'uns.....Boss
 - Bertha Stephens
 - Angels' Harps.....Behr
 - Cavalry March.....Hompeide
 - Lena Sellards
 - The Chase.....Rheinberger
 - Mary Ford
 - Reading—Charley Must Not Ring To-night.....Anonymous
 - Evelyn Johns
 - On the Lake.....Williams
 - Alpine Violets.....Ludwig Andre
 - Tress May
 - Melody in "F".....Rubinstein
 - Sallie Diquas
 - Prelude.....Rachmaninoff
 - Miss Fitzpatrick
 - Reading—The Volunteer Organist.....Foss
 - Ruth Fugitt
 - (a) A Gypsy Maiden, I.....Parker
 - (b) "Liebesleid".....Shelley
 - (c) At Dawning.....Cadman
 - Miss Fitzpatrick
 - Grande Polka de Concert.....Barlett
 - Cora Stephens
 - Rhapsodie Honoroire No. 2.....List
 - Cora Stephens—Miss Fitzpatrick
 - CHORUS—
 - Barcarolle—"Tales of Hoffman".....Offenbach
 - Accompanist—Miss Grace Layne

Locals.

W. D. Blair is in Virginia transacting business.

Misses Ella Noel White and Ruth Davidson spent last Friday with Mrs. Jno. F. Auxler at East Point.

Bolvard Friend of Cincinnati, is here visiting relatives.

Miss Marion Mayo spent Sunday at the Mayo farm.

A. J. May has returned from Catlettsburg where he has been on legal business.

Jo M. Davidson is home from Catlettsburg where he has been serving on the Federal jury.

Len S. Moles was down the river last week.

Mr. Scott has returned from Winchester.

Miss Bess Reid returned home Tuesday from West Va. to spend the summer with her parents.

A. L. Morrow left Wednesday for Wayland to be gone for ten days.

Bruce Atkinson left for Woodsbury Monday.

Mrs. Edith C. Goble and children are home from a lengthy visit to relatives on Beaver creek.

Mrs. Belle Flannery of Washington, D. C., is here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Langley are here the guests of relatives.

Jean Auxler of Pikeville was here Sunday visiting Miss Grace Layne.

I have 6 houses and 10 vacant lots in Oak View near South Ashland. For further information call on me. H. N. FISCHER, ASHLAND, KY.

DOINGS OF JOHNSON COUNTY PEOPLE.

Miss Stella Atkinson returned last week from California where she had been for the past few months the guest of her brother, Harry Atkinson and family. She reports a pleasant trip and is much improved in health.

Holmes Kirk returned Saturday from Inez where he went to pack his belongings to move them to Florida. He left Monday with a number of our people for the South, where he will make his future home.

Prof. Tom Atkinson arrived from Missouri last week to see his wife who is here the guest of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Atkinson.

J. Manford Bayes of Barnetts creek, was here Monday on business. Mr. Bayes is a candidate for Representative and has the nomination already won in a walk. He is one of the most popular young men of the county and will make a Representative of whom the entire district will be proud.

Carl Vaughan Martin and Edw. Conley have returned home from Louisville, where they have been attending the Louisville College of Dentistry.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vaughan Martin, a baby boy, May 27. The little fellow has been named William Carter and is doing fine. Carl is all smiles.

Harry C. Howes and Sarry J. Wheeler left here last week for Besco, Ky., where they will take charge of their new coal operation that has been opened and made ready for operation. The coal from this mine will be brought across Beaver creek and loaded in the coal cars at Besco. The vein is five feet of clean coal and the new operation will make the new operation a big success.

Town Marshall James Melvin arrested Proctor Gullett, son of John M. Gullett the first of the week for "bootlegging" whisky. He was taken before County Judge Fred A. Vaughan where he was tried and fined $75. He was also given a jail sentence of 10 days.

The officials of Paintsville and Johnson county will not tolerate the sale of liquor.

John C. Brown of Jenkins, Ky., arrived here last Saturday and spent Saturday and Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick. He left Monday for Florida where he goes to look the country over. He will probably locate on the Florida East Coast.

TO THE VOTERS OF LAWRENCE COUNTY.

Taking into consideration the situation in this county, the farmers all busy and everybody trying to help conditions all they can in every way, and especially by producing all the food products possible. It will be impossible for me to see all the voters at this time, so I will submit my claim to the good citizens of this county for endorsement and ask you to take my record during my administration and if you think me worthy of endorsement I will kindly appreciate your help. If nominated I think I can win the coming November election. I am in position to give better service the next term as I have had the necessary experience to do so. So I will ask all who can conscientiously do so to help me in the primary, and assure you that I am your friend still just the same. M. A. HAY.

Salesmen Wanted!

We need the services of several responsible men and women to represent us for the sale of our Hardy, Northern Grown Nursery Stock. Farmers, School Teachers, Students and others can make the work profitable on commission or part time. Liberal prices; cash weekly advances; select your own territory. Writing at once for our Special Offer. Outfit Free. DANVILLE FRUIT TREE COMPANY, 15 Bay Street, DANVILLE, N. Y.

We're Opposed to Mail Order Concerns Because—

They have never contributed a cent to furthering the interests of our town—
Every cent expended by them from this community is a direct loss to our merchants—
It is almost every one their price can be right here, without delay in receiving goods and the possibility of mistakes in filling orders.

But—
The natural human trait is to buy where one can get the best Local prices are usually secondary in the game of life as played today.

Therefore
Mr. Merchant and Business Man, meet your competition with their own weapons—advertising.

Advertise!
The local field is yours. All you need do is to avail yourself of the opportunities offered. An advertisement in this paper will carry your message into hundreds of homes in this community. It is the most medium of killing your greatest competitor. A space this size won't cost much. Come in and see us about it.

CATLETTSBURG NEWS

Enroute To Cincinnati.

Miss Annie Kinney, of Pikeville, passed through here to-day enroute to Cincinnati.

Converted Into Hotel.

The Hall property on Main-st., recently bought from the M. E. Church and Callahan heirs by Lee Hall is now being renovated and converted into a hotel. It is well and conveniently located for such.

Gone To Hazard.

Miss Ethel Wolfe left to-day for Hazard, Ky., to visit her brother, Mr. George Wolfe. She will be met at Winchester by Miss Kate Pence, who will visit with her.

Leave For Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Thornbury and daughter, Miss Virginia, leave tomorrow for Jenkins, Ky., where they will spend the summer.

Returned Home.

Attorney E. D. Stephenson, who has been here on business for several days, has returned to his home in Pikeville.

Visiting Parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thornbury, of Pikeville, are here the guests of Mrs. Thornbury's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Justice. Mrs. Thornbury was before marriage Miss E. Justice.

Left For Extended Visit.

Miss Sipp Akers left yesterday for Shreveport, La., to be a guest at the house party of her cousin Miss Margarette Walter. Miss Akers will be absent for several weeks visiting in the south. Mrs. W. R. Akers accompanied her daughter to Cincinnati, where she will remain a few days.

U. S. Court Takes Recess.

U. S. Court took a recess until July 2, when it resumes the trial of the 31 famous cases from points in Magoffin, Morgan, Johnson and Floyd counties. The defendants are charged with fraudulent use of U. S. mails. The jurors were admonished to be in their places on said July 2.

Wellman-Morehead.

A wedding that is of unusual interest to both Ashland and Catlettsburg, occurs on Tuesday, the 26th of June, at five o'clock, that of Miss Grayce Ceres Wellman, the talented young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrah Page Wellman, to Mr. Hugh Stephenson Morehead. The groom was formerly located in Ashland but now is in business at Fremont, Ohio. He is a fine young man and deserving of this charming young lady.

WEST VIRGINIA ITEMS OF NEWS.

Charleston, W. Va., June 11.—A school teacher who abandons her school two weeks before the end of the term to get married is not entitled to term pay for the two weeks of the last month of the term which she did teach, according to the opinion of the attorney general, announced here today. The teacher's name is being withheld.

Roanoke, Va., June 11.—The federal nets sweeping the feed districts of the mountain country for anti-draft conspirators today brought to Calvin McCoy, a relative of William V. McCoy, already under arrest and charged with being at the head of the "revolution" which was to have murdered all the landed people of the vicinity and taken their property.

Department of justice agents and national guardsmen along the line mountain ridges are being fired upon daily by sympathizers.

Fifty dollars each month while the war lasts will be given to the Red Cross by Huntington Lodge Knights of Pythias. The Huntington lodge takes the lead of other lodges in the state providing for itself work in the war and passed a resolution to remit the dues of members who are called to the front, and a police organization of about 50 men will be organized among the members of the order, the services of which will be offered to the government.

Charleston, W. Va., June 7.—With the exception of 19 books, ten in elementary grades and nine in high school, all text books to be used in West Virginia's free schools for the next five years were changed by the state school book commission, which has awarded contracts for five years.

New grade books include spellers, readers, grammars, arithmetic and hygiene, United States history, physiology and hygiene, dictionaries, domestic science, arts manual training, civil government, geography, West Virginia history and supplemental books.

The Logan, W. Va., Democrat says: Naaman Jackson stands a good chance making $10,000 within next 30 days and the other stockholders of the Stone-Hurst Coal company also may realize handsomely on their investment in that property as a representative of a big eastern corporation has taken a 30 day option on the mine for $50,000. Mr. Jackson bought a one-half interest in the company only 10 days ago for $20,000.

Anything New In Your Line of Business?

The People Ought to Know

Don't Hesitate. Buy them at our risk. If they are not better, cheaper, more pleasant, if they don't do you more good than all the medicine you ever need, go back to the merchant or druggist from whom you bought them and he will refund to you. Double the Retail Price.

BLACKO MEDICINE CO.,
Charleston, W. Va.

KENTUCKY NEIGHBORS

Jackson, Ky., June 8.—A very distressing accident resulted in the death of Joe, three years of age, son of Alex Black. Mr. Black purchased some bicarbonate of mercury and mixing it with molasses made an ointment with which to bathe and bandage a cow's foot. This ointment was in a bottle on the porch. Little Joe was in bed but rolled out and made for the bottle, putting it in his mouth. He was no way of telling how much of it he had got, but in fifteen minutes he was a corpse in his father's arms.

The Wayne, West Va. News says: Rome Rust, formerly Agricultural Agent for the county was visiting here Saturday and Sunday. He has been engaged in the oil business in Oklahoma since leaving here until about two weeks ago, when he was loaned by his company to Kanawha county for the summer to assist in general agricultural work. He will take up his work again in the oil fields about September 1.

Salversville, Ky.—Myrtle Patrick, daughter of John H. Patrick, a wealthy farmer living near Salversville, was married to J. H. Dollahide, of Van Lear, Ky. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, the Rev. Insko officiating. Immediately after the wedding, the couple left for Van Lear, where their home is to be.

Salversville, Ky.—Lieut. Arbie Arnett, second lieutenant of Co. L, Second Kentucky Infantry, arrived in Salversville to stimulate recruiting for the company. It is hoped that the company will be recruited to war strength before they are ordered to mobilize.

Olive Hill.—The only remaining three story business building in town, the Scott building, has been condemned as unsafe as a result of the recent fire, which wiped out nearly the entire business section, and will be torn down immediately. This building is of brick and concrete, as were most of those that were burned. Some firms are having to suspend because there are no buildings in town in which to continue business. The city council passed a stringent building ordinance prohibiting the erection of frame structures in the business section.

Jackson, Ky., June 6.—Circuit Court will begin in Jackson Monday, July 2, at which time it is planned to begin the most sweeping grand jury investigation that has been held in Breathitt county for many years. More than 100 warrants are out for witnesses who are refused to obey subpoenas secured for the April grand jury. The court situation and car shortage will also be a hindrance, and the civil authorities will take such steps as they are authorized to take against those who have refused to register under the draft law.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE.

John W. Towler, Plaintiff against

Jeff Collinsworth and Laura Collinsworth, Plaintiffs.

By virtue of a judgment an order of sale of the Lawrence Circuit Court, rendered at its special term of December 2, 1916, in the above cause, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the court house door in Louisa, Lawrence county, Kentucky, to the highest and best bidder at public auction, at 1:00 o'clock p. m., on June 18, 1917, (that being County Court day) upon a credit of six and twelve months, the following described real estate which lies on Cat creek in Lawrence county, Kentucky, and is bounded on the north by the lands of Ben Rice and Noah Ellis, and on the west by the land of J